

WATER BASED SUPPLY LIST

This list contains my preferred water-based oil colors, brush and painting surfaces.

MY OIL PAINTS

Titanium White

Cadmium Yellow Lemon

Cadmium Yellow

Cadmium Orange

Dioxazine Violet

Ultramarine Light (replacement for Ultramarine Blue in oil based oils)

Sap Green

Ice Blue
(Richeson Shiva Brand)

Rose Violet (replacement for Permanent Rose in oil based oils)

Imidazolone Brown

Indian Yellow

Quinacridone Violet

ROYAL TALENS COBRA WATER MIXABLE OIL COLORS

Transparent Oxide Red (replaces Oxide Orange in oil based oils)

Phthalo Turquoise
(replaces Caribbean Blue in oil based oils)

Transparent Red Medium

RICHESON SHIVA BRAND

Ice Blue - There is not a substitute for this color in water based oils so I have added my regular oil color from Shiva Brand.

NOTE: Regular oils and water miscible oils can be used together. If you have a favorite color that can't be found in water based oil paint, don't be afraid to throw in a regular oil based color (for me that's Ice Blue). You can go up to a 30% mix of regular oils with water based oil colors before losing the ability to clean up using soap and water only.

MEDIUM

Holbein Duo Aqua Linseed Oil

You will need medium to thin your oil paints. I use this mixed with water as my medium. I suggest doing a one part linseed oil to one part water mix and see how you like it. You may decide you want more/less water in the mix.

PAINTING SURFACES

The smooth surface of Ampersand Museum Series Gessobord is my preferred choice for painting surface. The sizes used in the painting videos on Provence.DreamLovePaint.com are:

(3) 12" x 12" (3) 9" x 12" (3) 6" x 6"

Note: Canvas (either stretched or on panels) works fine too---it just behaves a bit differently due to the texture difference between canvas and gessobord.
